This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. PREFACE.

THAT the affairs of one's neighbours are of no little interest to men of every class of life has perhaps never been more strongly proved than by the production of and great demand for "The Modern Domesday Book." Not only have Mr. Frederick Purdey and others analyzed it, Mr. Lyulph Stanley abused it, Mr. John Bright moved its digestion in the House, and the "Spectator" and other London journals scathingly criticised it, but the immense herd of country newspapers have actually reproduced it, as far as their own neighbourhoods are concerned, in their columns, much, probably, to the satisfaction of the bulk of readers, to whom twenty-six shillings (the price of the work as a whole) is prohibitory. As an example of this, I may mention, that having a small party in my house during one of those dubious weeks which come in 'twixt the close of the hunting and the beginning of the London season, I was saved all Marthean cares as to the amusement of my guests simply by leaving about on the table the two huge volumes of "The Modern Domesday," over which I found bowed with the utmost constancy two or more heads.

Digitized by Google

I heard from one of my guests that the copy of the work at the "Carlton" was reduced to rags and tatters within a fortnight of its arrival—a lesson which was not wasted on the library committee of my own club, who caused the book to be so bound as to defy anything short of a twelve-year-old school-boy.

Mr. Lyulph Stanley finds great fault with the carelessness of some of the entries in "Domesday,"—faults which, it must be admitted, are most perplexing to the compiler—faults in spelling, faults in description of residence, gross faults as to the initialling of names, not infrequent double entries of the same man, first as John, then as J., and in the same fashion through the alphabet; and not least, the almost invariable mixing up of a parson's glebe land, or possession in his public capacity of parish priest, with his private acreage, as what Sydney Smith dubbed a "squarson." One huge stumbling-block in the way of the work's perfection is the large number of double-barrelled (if I may use the term) names in England, such as Hart-Dyke, Leveson-Gower, and Vernon-Harcourt, to say naught of such perfect "mitrailleuses" as Rouse-Boughton-Knight and Butler-Clarke-Southwell-Wandesforde. This necessitates a search for acres under every one of the bracketed family names.

In Wales the difficulty lies in a very different direction, i.e. in the almost desperate simplicity of names; in fact, it may be taken for granted that two-thirds of Wales is owned by the families of Jones, Davies, Evans, and Williams.

Would that for the wretched compiler's sake there had been a few more "Sir Watkins" in existence! That deservedly popular "King of Wales" will, I hope (not being the inquisitive stranger myself), pardon me if I mention a story told me by another Welshman.

SCENE.—First Class Carriage on Central Wales Railway.

DRAMATIS PERSONÆ.—SIR W. W. WYNN (much disposed to snooze), INQUISITIVE SNOB.

Snob. Can you tell me, sir, whose is that nice little house in the wood there?

Sir W. W. W. (civilly). Oh yes, that's mine.

Snob (after pause of ten minutes). Who owns that grouse mountain, sir?

Sir W. W. W. (sleepily). Eh?—er—I—do.

Snob (after another pause). Can you tell me, sir, whose woods those are over to the right?

Sir W. W. W. (roused from doze and with irritation). Mine!

At the next stopping-place the snob jumped out, sought the station-master, and told him that (happily half asleep, and therefore not dangerous,) in the same carriage with him was a maniac who swore that the whole country belonged to him.

In a compilation of the sort I have attempted mistakes must occur, but I have tried to minimize them by noting the most glaring and oft-recurring errors in the return, in order to be on guard against them. I may class these errors as follows.

I. Mixture of Vowels.—Vowels I find in the return mean next to nothing. For instance, Sir H. S. Ibbetson is returned as himself properly spelt, and in the same county as "Sir H. Ebbetson;" in the far north, the name of Lindow is spelt with the most perfect impartiality "Lindow," "Lin-don," and "London;" in a Midland county, my good friend John Levett and his kinsfolk are put in as "Levitt," "Lovett," and "Lovatt," and unless a man knew or found out by internal evidence that no Lovett was ever squire of Wichnor and guardian of the hereditary flitch, he would grievously fail in judging the Levett acreage aright. In Derbyshire, again, the considerable family of Turbutt is robbed of its entire patrimony (except a beggarly four acres), which is given to the mythical house of "Tinbutt." I might multiply these cases a hundred-fold.

II. Variation of Consonants.—Even consonants are muddled in a most arbitrary fashion; one main object of the rural authority who furnished the materials for Domesday being to spell his local landowners phonetically, the family possessions of the house of "Fazakerley" are distributed among the "Fazackerleys," "Fizackleas," "Phizackarleys," and "Phizackleas."

Mr. Pochin would probably hardly care to own an estate were the ownership coupled with the condition that he should change his name to "Poctim," yet so "Domesday" has it.

III. Titles.—Titles are a great trial. Englishmen are said to "love a lord," but that is hardly an excuse for giving two steps in the peerage, as is done in Lord Stafford's case, and some others, or for making the widows of knights into Lady Janes, Lady Bettys, and Lady Marys. I may mention that a Viscount seems to be a hopeless grievance to the compilers, who get out of the difficulty by sometimes using the simple letter V, and in other cases Vincent; Lord Valentia, for instance, being entered as "Vincent

Valentia." Titles, however, are no obstacle when, as seems to have been the case in some counties north of the Humber, the parochial authorities were of the Quaker persuasion, for there I find a man's title sometimes denied him in toto. Had the Prince been a landowner they would have possibly entered him as "Albert E. Guelph."

IV. Addresses.—The general orders of Government were that the rate collectors should give the addresses of the landowner, and not the name of, say the farm or farms he owned or the name of the parish in which they lay. This has been done fairly well in some counties, notably the South-eastern, where, if they do not know an owner's address, they either leave it blank, with the name of the place in which the acreage is situate, or simply insert the address of the firm of lawyers who collect the rents, as No. —— Lincoln's Inn.

But in other parts of England the confusion is horrible; for instance, an owner, say Mr. J. T. P. Smith-Green, of Granby Hall, will be described as J. Smith, Little Pedlington—perhaps he only owns an outlying farm there; as J. T. Smith, of Granby Hall, his real abode; as John Thomas Plantagenet SMITH-GREEN, of 1, Portland Place, W.; as J. T. P. GREEN-SMITH, of the Fogies' Club, S.W.—the only error in this case being the putting the Green in front of the Smith, and giving his address at his club on the all-sufficient ground that he once dated a letter enclosing a cheque for rates from it; as J. G. Smith, of Aix-les-Bains, for same reason; or as J. T. P. Smythe-Green, of Boulevard, Paris—Boulevard, Paris, being all the locus standi given to one owner whose popularity is undoubted and whose acres are very broad. I have, therefore, had no scruple, where internal evidence is forthcoming in any case, in crediting a man with acres, whether his address be parochial, real country seat, London house, club, such-and-such a regiment, Lincoln's Inn, or any foreign watering-place where he may be making a temporary sojourn for economy, health, or any other cause.

V. Initials.—These are not always to be trusted. F and T being particular sinners, many a F. Smith is given the land of his kinsman, whose name is, for instance, Thomas. A mistake among the Smiths might be pardoned, but 'tis really difficult to see why the compiler should have made the following entries:—

White, F. G. G., Wethersfield . .	1,561 .	2,491
White, T. G. G., Wethersfield . .	3,576 .	4,303

The facts of the case being simply these:—

That Mr. White owns estates in two parishes or more. That in each case his address was correctly given. That one returning authority could not have written a very plain T., but that he gave T. as the initial not a soul who knows Essex would for a moment doubt. These entries, I may say, occur, not side by side as I have put them, but on different sheets. The initial of a father's name is frequently given, while he may have been dead and his acres in the son's possession, say ten years.

In arranging these pages I have drawn the line at three thousand acres—the line must be drawn somewhere—and though 'tis hard for some old-established families, such as Bodenham, of Rotherwas, to be excluded because, as in his case, he lacks but a quarter of an acre, while Mrs. ———s, of Goatshire, in Wales, is entered because she owns three thousand and one acres of rocky desert, worth two hundred a year; yet so it must be, and I can only assure Mr. Bodenham that if he can show me the additional quarter acre under some mis-spelling, he shall be duly entered in the next edition. I have also to mention that I hav given, in every case but that of Mr. T. Truesdale Clarke, and Mr. Clarke-Thornhill, and three others, the son's acres to the father; the Dowager's property, in every case where it will probably go back to the main estate, to the eldest son, and the wife's property to the husband; for instance, his Grace of Devonshire has added to his acreage some five thousand, which in the return are under Lord Hartington's name. I have taken no notice of parts of an acre, or of shillings and pence; in every case, therefore, where a man owns in divers counties his acres and income will be slightly greater. Some families here entered do not enjoy the credit of anything like their real income and area, for two reasons: first, that that area may be in Lancashire, West Yorkshire, or Staffordshire, where the return sins grievously in giving incomes without area; or that it may be in the Metropolitan District which is not entered at all.

The rent-roll pertaining to the houses of Bedford, Westminster, Portland, Maryon-Wilson, Cadogan, and Selby-Lowndes, to mention only a few, would look fatter by far were London included in the return.

As it is interesting to know a man's religion and politics, and at the same time unusual to say what they are, I have added, where I can arrive at them, each landowner's college and club. From his college may be inferred the religion of his forebears, if not his own; from his club, his politics and pursuits; for instance, in "Brooks's" one does not expect to find a radical of the most prononcé type; in "White's" a nouveau riche; in the "Athenæum" a sporting man; in the "Stafford" or "St. George's" a hot Orangeman; in the "National" a strong supporter of Cardinal Manning; in the "Raleigh" one of the straitest sect of the Pharisees; in the "Turf" a great light of science; or, I may add, in the "Travellers'" a Livingstone, a Speke, or a Baker.

In conclusion, let me say that this compilation was undertaken by me simply as a labour of love, when no one else seemed disposed to attempt it; it is, no doubt, full of errors, but such errors would be tenfold were the process repeated by any one who, unlike myself, had a fair knowledge of who's who; also let me, on my knees, and with the utmost contrition, apologize to grammar and grammarians for the crime of coining "Acre-ocracy," indefensible in every way; but all I can say is that "Acre-cracy" would be cacophonous as well as ungrammatical.

NOTE.

Where the letter S occurs after a name it denotes that the person to whom it is attached is noticed in Mr. Shirley's "Noble and Gentle Men of England" as being either head of, or head of a junior branch of, a family who held land in the same county since the time of Henry VII. in unbroken male line.
